CERTIFICATE of CONFORMITY

DATE: 29-05-2018

Certificate Number: Q020-180501

The manufacturer and or their authorised representative declares that the product described hereafter is in conformity with:

- either the provisions of the European Directive or EU Regulation and, where, such is the case, with the harmonised standard number shown on the product label. OR
- meets the requirements of our manufacturing criteria or product specifications.
- all product testing is carried out in accordance with either the relevant harmonised standard, the original manufacturers standards or to our own internal test procedures.

This product has been tested to conform to the requirements shown on the product label (if applicable), but once in use, it is the user's responsibility to ensure the on-going integrity of the product and to decide the correct time for obsolescence.
